

From: warisnbi [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, 1 November 2013 5:07 PM
To: Standard Consultation
Subject: English requirements

I believe Kenya should be recognized as an English speaking country. I do speak better English than some so called natives but I have to take the test.its ridiculous. First you will think people should be assessed prior to entry not after their completion of the respective chosen career. I have lived in Australia for almost ten years and iam a citizen but still got to do the English test. How sad.

[REDACTED]